NAfME

OCTOBER 20 2020

Welcome!

- We've asked a fun question in the chat. To get your attendance counted, use the chat to answer the question!

- If you're not seeking certification, you don't have to answer the question if you don't want. If you are, we can only ensure your attendance is counted if you answer!

What is NAfME?

- NAfME stands for National Association for Music Education
- NAfME is an organization that covers all aspects of music education that advocates at local, state, and national levels

- Mission statement: To advance music education by promoting the understanding and making of music by all
- Many colleges, including EIU, have collegiate chapters of NAfME for music education majors

What do we do?

- Regular meetings
- Guest speakers
- Service hours

Meeting Schedule Fall 2020

- Oct 20 (That's today!)
- Nov 10
- Nov 17
- Dec 1

- All these days are Tuesday, and all the meetings are at 7:30pm!

Constitution Updates

- Constitution has been updated for this year!
- Some notable changes:
- We are holding 4 meetings this semester (not 5)
- Attendance at 3 meetings (not 4) are required for certification
- 3 service hours are required (not 4)

Constitution

- To receive certification for this semester, you must return a signed constitution sheet

- Constitution is online; signature sheets can be found in a folder by Dr. Larson's door!

- This is due Tuesday, November 10th (next meeting)

- You can turn them in to Makayla before or at the next meeting!

- You can also turn them into the folder by Dr. Larson's door right where you get them!

Dues

- No chapter dues this semester!   (Usually $5)

- National Dues - $37

- Head to nafme.org and click "Join/Renew" and follow the steps to join or renew NAfME membership

- Once dues are paid, email proof to Katie! This is also due on November 10th!

- Kmsmith12@eiu.edu

Service Hours

- 3 are required this semester instead of 4
- Any music education service work
  - Ex: Virtual lessons
- Completed service hour sheets are returned to Maura!

Kahoot

- To help you remember some of this information, we have made a Kahoot!
